CIVIL ACTION COMPLAINT

Plaintiff, by and through her undersigned counsel, hereby avers as follows:

INTRODUCTION

1. This action has been initiated by Tracy Hamilton (hereinafter referred to as "Plaintiff," unless indicated otherwise) against Universal Health Services, Inc. (hereinafter referred to as "Defendant" unless indicated otherwise) for violations of the Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA" - 42 U.S.C. §§ 12101 et. seq.), the Family and Medical Leave Act ("FMLA" – 29 U.S.C. §§ 2601 et. seq.) and the Pennsylvania Human Relations Act ("PHRA" – 43 P.S. §§ 951 et. seq.). As a direct consequence of Defendant's unlawful actions, Plaintiff seeks damages as set forth herein.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This Court has original subject matter jurisdiction over the instant action pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1333(a)(4) because it arises under the laws of the United States and seeks redress for violations of federal laws. There lies supplemental jurisdiction over Plaintiff's state-law claims because they arise out of the same common nucleus of operative facts as Plaintiff's federal claims asserted herein.

3. This Court may properly maintain personal jurisdiction over Defendant because its contacts with this state and this judicial district are sufficient for the exercise of jurisdiction over Defendant to comply with traditional notions of fair play and substantial justice, satisfying the standard set forth by the United States Supreme Court in International Shoe Co. v. Washington, 326 U.S. 310 (1945) and its progeny.

4. Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391(b)(1) and (b)(2), venue is properly laid in this district because all of the acts and/or omissions giving rise to the claims set forth herein occurred in this judicial district, and Defendant is deemed to reside where it is subjected to personal jurisdiction, rendering Defendant a resident of the Eastern District of Pennsylvania.

PARTIES

5. The foregoing paragraphs are incorporated herein in their entirety as if set forth in full.

6. Plaintiff is an adult individual, with an address as set forth in the caption. At all relevant times herein, Plaintiff was employed with Defendant.

7. Defendant is a fortune 500 hospital management company headquartered in King of Prussia, Pennsylvania.

8. At all times relevant herein, Defendant acted by and through its agents, servants and employees, each of whom acted at all times relevant herein in the course and scope of their employment with and for Defendant.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

9. The foregoing paragraphs are incorporated herein in their entirety as if set forth in full.

10. Plaintiff was hired in or about April 2008 as a Registered Nurse.

11. Defendant has and continues to employ over 20 employees per calendar year for at least the last 5 years, and Defendant engages in a variety of business relationships generating revenue in the education business.

12. In or about August 2008, Plaintiff signed documentation to work three days per week.

13. Plaintiff suffers from hepatitis C and liver disease (among other complications).

14. Plaintiff's conditions affect her major life activities adversely causing her fatigue, concentration problems at times, digestive problems, immune-system problems, cell growth limitations, difficulty with her body ridding itself of waste, and other life and biological processes.

15. In or about February 2011, Plaintiff took a leave of absence for approximately 5 days due to her disabilities.

16. Plaintiff took another medical leave of absence from Defendant in or around 2012.

17. In August 2012, Plaintiff was told that beginning in November, she would be scheduled only 2 weekends per month of day shifts and that any other shifts would be assigned at night.

18. Prior to August of 2012, Plaintiff had worked day shifts.

19. Defendant claimed that part-time positions were being eliminated in November of 2012 and that Plaintiff would have to re-apply for a new position to remain on day shift.

20. Plaintiff applied for a new position on day shift as directed following her notification of potential job elimination, but she was not scheduled for an interview even though other employees were given interviews.

21. Defendant's management told Plaintiff that they had forgotten to schedule her interview.

22. Plaintiff had to adamantly request an interview again after her fellow employees had already been interviewed.

23. When Plaintiff was finally interviewed, the supervisors that interviewed her made negative comments regarding her disabilities, expressing concerns about her ability to perform her job.

24. The individuals of Defendant's management that interviewed Plaintiff told her that, her health concerned them, they didn't know if she could work full time, and that she didn't have the best attendance record (relative to her taking time off for medical reasons).

25. On or about the day Plaintiff was finally granted an interview, Defendant's management ordered Plaintiff to submit to a drug screening (despite that she had already been employed with Defendant).

26. Plaintiff was suspended from work for 14 days pending the results of the aforementioned screening she took in conjunction with trying to remain employed with Defendant.

27. On or about September 9, 2012 (after significant delays in processing Plaintiff's attempts to remain employed), Plaintiff supplied Defendant's Human Resources Director with a medical certification stating that she should not work evenings of more than eight hours per shift.

28. In or about November 2012, Defendant notified Plaintiff that she would not be scheduled for day shifts.

29. Plaintiff repeatedly asked for an accommodation of day-shift work, but she was repeatedly refused same.

30. Finally on or about December 12, 2012, Plaintiff informed Defendant's management that she was unable to continue working unless she was moved to day shift, and management responded that there were no day shifts available.

31. Plaintiff made it clear to Defendant's management that a day shift was required due to her disabilities, as she had since being notified of her job elimination.

32. Plaintiff was removed from the schedule based upon the information she provided to Defendant that she was unable to work night shifts after she was involuntarily placed on such shifts and not accommodated with any day shifts.

33. Prior to being removed from her job entirely, Plaintiff was not given many types of jobs that would have served as a reasonable accommodation to let her work on the same shift she had previously worked. She was not retained or given reasonable accommodations of other shifts or jobs because Defendant's management was attempting to force Plaintiff to cease working due to their negative perception of her health conditions.

COUNT I

Violations of the Americans with Disabilities Act ("ADA", as amended)

([1] Discrimination; [2] Failure to Accommodate; [3] Retaliation)

34. The foregoing paragraphs are incorporated herein in their entirety as if set forth in full.

35. Plaintiff properly exhausted her administrative remedies before proceeding in this Court for violations of the ADA by timely filing a Charge with the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission ("EEOC") and by filing the instant Complaint within 90 days of receiving a notice of case closure and/or right-to-sue letter.

36. Plaintiff suffered the following adverse actions for which she seeks relief: (a) being given less shifts / work in a discriminatory manner; (b) being removed and transferred to a different job / job that it was known Plaintiff would medically have difficulty performing; (c) not being accommodated with a multitude of jobs Plaintiff sought and which were available to accommodate Plaintiff; (d) by suspending Plaintiff's employment for a background check despite that she was an employee already; and (e) by causing Plaintiff's employment to separate by not accommodating her and removing her from the schedule.

37. Plaintiff was terminated from Defendant because of: (1) her known health conditions; (2) her perceived health conditions; and/or (3) due to her record of impairment.

38. Plaintiff was also terminated in retaliation for requesting medical accommodations from Defendant.

39. Plaintiff made clear requests for medical accommodations (day work and eight hour shifts in the evening) but was refused any interactive process from Defendant (or reasonable or meaningful consideration of her requests).

40. These actions as aforesaid constitute unlawful discrimination, retaliation, and failure to accommodate under the ADA.

Count II
Violation of the Family and Medical Leave Act ("FMLA")
([1] Interference; [2] Retaliation)

41. The foregoing paragraphs are incorporated herein in their entirety as if set forth in full.

42. Plaintiff was an eligible employee under the definitional terms of the Family and Medical Leave Act, 29 U.S.C. § 2611(2)(a)(i)(ii).

43. Plaintiff requested intermittent and/or block leaves from Defendant, her employer, with whom she had been employed for at least twelve (12) months pursuant to the requirements of 29 U.S.C.A. § 2611(2)(A)(i).

44. Plaintiff had at least 1,250 hours of service with Defendant during the prior twelve (12) months.

45. Defendant is engaged in an industry affecting commerce and employs fifty (50) or more employees for each working day during each of the twenty (20) or more calendar work weeks in the current or proceeding calendar year, pursuant to 29 U.S.C.A. § 2611(4)(A)(i).

46. Plaintiff was entitled to receive leave pursuant to 29 U.S.C.A. § 2612 (a)(1) and for a total of twelve (12) work weeks of leave due to her serious health conditions.

47. Defendant improperly refused to give Plaintiff available shifts for medical reasons, to initially interview her, to offer her available jobs, to accommodate her medical leaves, and constructively terminated Plaintiff for absences that constituted protected FMLA leave and for exercising her FMLA rights.

48. These actions as aforesaid constitute unlawful interference and retaliation under the Family and Medical Leave Act.

COUNT III
Violations of the Pennsylvania Human Relations Act ("PHRA")
(Disability Discrimination/Retaliation)

49. The foregoing paragraphs are incorporated herein in their entirety as if set forth in full.

50. Plaintiff reasserts and realleges each and every assertion as set forth in Count I of this Complaint, as such actions constitute identical violations of the Pennsylvania Human Relations Act.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays that this Court enter an Order providing that:

A. Defendant is to compensate Plaintiff, reimburse Plaintiff, and make Plaintiff whole for any and all pay and benefits Plaintiff would have received had it not been for Defendant's illegal actions, including but not limited to back pay, front pay, salary, pay increases, bonuses, insurance, benefits, training, promotions, reinstatement, and seniority.

B. Plaintiff is to be awarded punitive or liquidated damages, as permitted by applicable law, in an amount believed by the Court or trier of fact to be appropriate to punish Defendant for its willful, deliberate, malicious and outrageous conduct and to deter Defendant or other employers from engaging in such misconduct in the future;

C. Plaintiff is to be accorded other equitable and legal relief as the Court deems just, proper, and appropriate (including but not limited to damages for emotional distress / pain and suffering);

D. Plaintiff is to be awarded the costs and expenses of this action and reasonable attorney's fees as provided by applicable federal and state law.

E. Plaintiff is to receive a trial by jury as set forth in the caption of this Complaint.

Respectfully submitted,

KARPF, KARPF & CERUTTI, P.C.
